

Opening: (ALWAYS FOLLOW SCREEN INSTRUCTIONS)

Greeting the Client/Dial-Out:

"Thank you for calling LanguageLine Solutions. This is Maria, Interpreter ID 555555, I will be your Spanish interpreter today. I am proud to serve you. This call may be monitored for training and quality assurance purposes.* (SCREEN: May I have -other information listed in the call prompts?) Is your customer with you or do you need me to call them for you? (If not,) I'm ready for your instructions. *Exceptions Apply – Follow Screen Instructions

Requests for a Dial-out:

Certainly, what is the number you would like me to dial, please, beginning with the area code? / Whom should we ask for? / If we get a voicemail, would you like me to leave a message? Refer to your system manual (HA-LINC-MobApp) for further details.

If the Client States that a Dial-out Is Not Needed:

I am ready for your instructions.

Greeting the LEP Caller:

Hello, I'm the interpreter today for you and (name) from (company name). I am proud to serve you. This call may be monitored for training and quality assurance purposes. May I have your _____? or Hello, I'm your interpreter and I have (name) on the line. This call may be monitored for training and quality assurance purposes. I'm proud to serve you. May I have your _____?

Medical-Clinical Confidentiality Disclosure:

I will be your interpreter on this call. Everything you say will be kept strictly confidential and I will interpret everything you say to your doctor.

Interpreter Requests to Client or LEP caller:

Repetition:

May the interpreter ask Mrs. Lugo to repeat her last response? or

The interpreter respectfully requests a repetition of the last three words.

When Unfamiliar Terms Are Used:

I'm sorry, this is the interpreter sir/ma'am, please allow me a minute to verify a term with Mrs. _____ or

This is the interpreter, Mrs. _____, would you please explain the term "home preservation"?

Clarification:

Excuse me, the interpreter requests a clarification, I'm sorry but Mr/Mrs. _____ used a term that has multiple meanings. May I ask for it, please?

Obtaining Workable Segments:

Sir/ma'am, to ensure accuracy and quality, the interpreter would appreciate if you could give me the information in shorter/smaller segments.

Handling Lack of Opportunity to Interpret:

This is the interpreter speaking, (Doctor, Your Honor). The interpreter did not have an opportunity to interpret the statement just made. How would you like the interpreter to proceed?

Keeping the Client Informed:

The interpreter repeated the question and this is what Mrs./Mr. _____ replied:

or

The interpreter verified the information, and it is...

Client/LEP Caller Start to Communicate in Language:

Sir/Ma'am, this is the interpreter. Would you like me to remain on the line in case any clarification is needed?

or

Sir/Ma'am, this is the interpreter. I just wanted to let you know that I am standing by and ready to assist you should there be a need.

Voices heard in the background:

Excuse me, this is the interpreter speaking, there is another person providing the answers for your client in the background.

Use of Offensive Language:

This is the interpreter reporting that the gentleman is using offensive language; would you like me to interpret that?

LEP Caller Initiates Conversation While on Hold:

Just a moment, please, we're on hold; if you don't mind, could you ask this question when the nurse is back on the line?

Question About interpreter's Location/ Nationality:

I'm working from my home office in the US. / I'm originally from Gibraltar.

Closing the Call:

Is there anything else I can help you with?

or

Thank you for using our service.

or

Thank you for allowing us to help you with your interpretation needs today.

We appreciate your business. (Never with medical calls!)