Open enrollment

Affordable Care Act (ACA) = Ley de cuidado de salud asequible

Often referred to as "Obamacare," it is a comprehensive healthcare reform law enacted in the United States in March 2010. It introduced a number of changes to the healthcare system, including the establishment of health insurance marketplaces and the requirement that most Americans have health insurance.

Health Insurance Marketplace = Mercado de seguros médicos

Also known as a Health Insurance Exchange, it is a government-regulated online platform where individuals and families can shop for and purchase health insurance plans.

Open Enrollment Period = período de inscripción abierta

Designated period during which individuals can enroll in a new health insurance plan, make changes to an existing plan or renew their current plan.

Coverage options = opciones de cobertura

- Bronze
- Silver
- Gold
- Platinum
- Catastrophic coverage for certain young and healthy individuals.

Special Enrollment Period (SEP) = Período especial de inscripción

It is a time outside of the annual open enrollment period during which individuals can sign up for or make changes to their health insurance coverage on the Health Insurance Marketplace.

Qualifying life event = evento de vida calificado

A significant change in your life or circumstances that allows you to make changes to your health insurance coverage outside of the regular open enrollment period. (e.g. marriage or divorce, birth of a child, loss of health coverage, change in income, etc.)
